

Digitized by the Internet Archive
in 2008 with funding from Microsoft Corporation

P
univ
H

HARVARD.

CLASS OF 1844.

JULY 1, 1864.

348715
4. 4. 38

BOSTON:
PRINTED BY DAVID CLAPP.
1864.

A space has been left so that each member may make additions and corrections.

H A R V A R D, 1 8 4 4 .

---

GEORGE WASHINGTON BAKER. Born Oct. 10, 1822, in Salisbury, Lancaster Co., Penn. Brought up on a farm until 15 years of age, when attended Academy and fitted for College. Came to Cambridge in 1842, and entered as a University student. Not being satisfied with this arrangement, entered the class of 1844, at the second term of junior year. Has written his life thus far in the Class-Book.

FRANCIS LOWELL BATCHELDER. Born in Lowell, Mass., April 2, 1825. Parents moved to Saco when he was six years old; there fitted for College. Devotes two pages of the Class-Book to some reminiscences of his early life. After graduating, studied law at Cambridge. Married. Died.

THOMAS BLAIR. Born Nov. 20, 1825, in Western Pennsylvania. Attended Academy in Pittsburg, from 12 to 16 years of age. Then joined Western University of Penn., where he remained until August, 1843, when he entered Cambridge, and became a member of the Class of 1844. Devotes nearly two pages of the Class-Book to an outline of his early life. Removed to Pennsylvania and went into business.

GEORGE MERRICK BROOKS. Born in Concord, Mass., July 26, 1824. Remained at Academy in Concord until 1836. Placed on a farm at Pomfret, Ct., for a year; afterwards fitted for College at Waltham. Gives an account of his early experiences in Class-Book. Studied law at Cambridge and Concord, and commenced practice in his native town. In 1850, married. Has been a member of the legislature one year, and represented for one year the Fourth Middlesex District in the State Senate. Was at this time chosen on the committee to revise the Statutes of Massachusetts. Has also filled a few town offices. At present, practising law in Concord.

CHARLES JAMES CAPEN. Born in South Boston, April 5, 1823. Fitted for College at Public Latin School, Boston. Since graduating, has been engaged in teaching, and is now connected with the Public Latin School in Boston. Married April, 1848, and resides at Dedham.

GEORGE BLANKERN CARY. Born in Boston, Dec. 2, 1824. Fitted for College at the Boston Latin School. After graduating, passed a year in foreign travel. On his return, commenced the profession of law in Dane Law School, where "he became distinguished for his accurate perceptions of the principles of the law, and a just discrimination of its positive rules." Died suddenly in Boston, Dec. 22, 1846.

HENRY CHARLES CHAUNCY. Born in Middletown, Ct., Feb. 9, 1825. Went to South America with his parents at the age of six, where he remained several years. Returned to Middletown and fitted for College, which he entered in 1842.

JAMES GORDON CLARKE. Born in Nashua, N.H., Dec. 28, 1822. Since graduating, studied law. Has spent most of his time in foreign travel, and was appointed several years since Secretary of Legation at Bruxelles. At present in this country.

ROBERT CODMAN. Born in Dorchester, March 8, 1823. Prepared for College at Dummer Academy, Byfield, Mass. Studied law at Dane Law School, and practised in Boston since 1848. Married in New York, Nov., 1854.

JUDAH CROWELL. Born in Yarmouth, Mass., Jan. 31, 1820. After graduating, studied medicine. Died in South Yarmouth, Mass., Feb. 11, 1847.

CHARLES WILLIAM DABNEY. Born Aug. 10, 1823, at Fayal. Prepared for College at Fayal and at Paris, under E. S. Brooks, tutor. Married 1849. Merchant. Appointed Major of the 44th Regiment Mass. Vols., and was with them during the campaign in North Carolina. At present engaged in mercantile life. Resides at West Roxbury.

JOHN CALL DALTON. Born Feb. 2, 1825, at Chelmsford, Mass. Fitted for College at Lowell and Waltham, under Rev. Samuel

Ripley. After graduating, studied medicine with his father, and attended lectures in Boston. In 1846, appointed House-apothecary at the Mass. General Hospital, and in the year following House-surgeon. Practised his profession for a short time in Boston, and afterwards removed to New York State, where he lectured on Physiology in the University of Buffalo. In 1855 he was appointed Professor of Physiology and Microscopic Anatomy in the College of Physicians and Surgeons in the City of New York. Volunteered his services at an early period of the rebellion, and accompanied our forces to Port Royal. On his return, assigned to home service connected with the transportation of sick and wounded soldiers. Again on duty in the department of the South, for a few weeks, in the summer of 1863. At present occupied with professional duties in New York. Unmarried.

HENRY TALLMAN DAVIS. Born in Boston, Mass., March 16, 1823. Fitted for College at Public Latin School. After graduation, studied law at Greenfield, Mass., and admitted to the bar. Afterwards entered into mercantile life. Commissioned 2d Lieutenant 1st Reg. Mass. Vol. Cavalry, March 24, 1862. Was afterwards appointed to the staff of Brig. Gen. Devens. Has now retired from the army. Unmarried.

EDMUND DWIGHT. Born in Boston, Sept. 3, 1824. Travelled in Europe in 1846—also in 1851 and 1852. Married in Boston, 1855. Has been engaged in mercantile pursuits, and is Treasurer of the Naumkeag Steam Mills.

AMOS HENRY FARNSWORTH. Born in Boston, Aug. 8, 1825. After leaving College, studied law at Cambridge in Dane Law School. Received his degree, and has since resided in the State of New York.

GEORGE FAULKNER. Born at Billerica, Mass., July 14, 1819. After three years of mercantile life in Boston, was fitted for College at Leicester and Exeter Academies. Received his degree in medicine in August, 1847; was married and settled at Jamaica Plain, where he has since continued to practise his profession.

TAPPAN EUSTIS FRANCIS. Born in Boston. Aug. 28, 1823. Fitted for College at Boston Latin School, 1835 to 1840. After graduation, studied medicine in Boston and Roxbury. Received his degree in 1847. Practised in Roxbury till October, 1848, when he moved to Newton Lower Falls. In October, 1851, removed to Brookline, married, and has continued to practise his profession in that town.

RICHARD FREDERIC FULLER. Born in Cambridge, May 15, 1824. Was fitted for College by his sister, Margaret Fuller, and at the school of Hon. S. M. Weld, West Roxbury, Mass., and prepared for advanced admission in Concord, Mass. Studied law, and has continued to practise his profession in Boston. Married in Canton, Mass., in 1849. Second marriage at Wayland, Mass., March, 1857.

BENJAMIN APTHORP GOULD. Born in Boston, Sept. 27, 1824. Fitted for Cambridge at the Public Latin School, Boston. A few weeks before graduation, was appointed to the charge of the Roxbury Grammar School, in which he taught for a year. Went to Europe in 1845, to prosecute the study of astronomy. Studied at the observatories of Greenwich, Paris, Berlin, &c., and returned to Cambridge in December, 1848. In 1849, took charge of the longitude determinations of the U. S. Coast Survey, and resided in southern cities for the next five winters. In 1855, went to Europe to order instruments for the Dudley Observatory, to be established in Albany; appointed Director in 1856; moved to Albany in 1858, and remained till April, 1859. In November, 1859, entered mercantile life, and continued therein until 1863. Married in October, 1861. Has since resided in Cambridge, engaged, at the request of the Navy Department, in the reduction of the observations left by Maury when he quitted Washington.

SAMUEL SEWALL GREELE. Born in Boston, Oct. 11, 1824. After graduating, taught school in Ohio and Massachusetts. In 1845, entered the Rensselaer Institute, New York—a scientific school. From 1846 to 1848, employed in the Engineer Corps of the Boston Water Works. After this, was Assistant Engineer in the construction of the Rutland Railroad, Vt., and on the Alexandria Railroad, Va. In 1852, went to Europe. Returned, and in 1853 opened an office in Chicago as an Engineer and Surveyor, where he now resides. Married in 1854.

GEORGE SILSBEE HALE. Born in Keene, N. H., Sept. 24, 1825. Prepared for College at Keene and Exeter, N. H. Studied law at Dane Law School. Has practised in Boston. For two years has been President of the Common Council of Boston. Not married.

SHATTUCK HARTWELL. Born in Littleton, Mass., February 9, 1822. Fitted for College at Pinkerton Academy, Derry, N. H. After graduating, was proctor one year, tutor in Latin four years, was in Dane Law School two or three years. Admitted to bar in 1848. Married at Cincinnati, Ohio, July, 1849. Practised in that city until the spring of 1857, when he returned to Littleton and settled on the paternal farm, where he now resides.

HORATIO NELSON HILDRETH. Born at Bolton, Mass., Oct. 23, 1820.

EBENEZER PIERCE HINDS. Born at Livermore, Me., June 30, 1821.

EDWARD SHERMAN HOAR. Born in Concord, Mass., Dec. 22, 1823. After graduating, studied law one year in Harvard Law School, and two in New York City; admitted to practice in the Courts of New York in 1848. Emigrated to California in 1849, where he practised law and traded in cattle till 1857, when he returned to Massachusetts. Married in December, 1858, and has since been engaged in farming, in Lincoln, Mass.

HENRY AUGUSTINE JOHNSON. Born in Fairhaven, Mass., Feb. 17, 1825. Fitted for College with Prof. H. W. Torrey, in New Bedford. After graduating, studied law at the Dane Law School, and was admitted to the bar in Suffolk County in 1848. Travelled in Europe the next two years, and, after his return, began the practice of law in Boston, which he still continues in the same place. Was married in Dorchester, Jan. 10, 1859, and is now residing at Jamaica Plain, Mass.

ROBERT YATES JONES. Born in Petersburg, Va., Dec. 22, 1822.

ROBERT LEMMON. Born in Baltimore, Sept. 25, 1825. Engaged in business at Baltimore ; studied and practised law there three years. Removed to Patuxent, Anne Arundel Co., Maryland, in 1852, and was there engaged in the smelting of iron. Died at his residence there, Dec. 24, 1856, leaving a widow and one son.

SAMUEL PARKER LEWIS. Born at Pepperell, Nov. 16, 1824.

GEORGE HOMER LORD. Attended Giles & Cushing's, and Cleveland & Cushing's schools, in 1837, and Cushing & Forbes's in 1838 and 1840. Sailed for Europe, Aug. 8, 1844 ; returned in 1845. Entered a counting-room in New York, Sept. 29, 1845, where he remained one or two years, and left with health impaired. Entered the law school at Cambridge, Feb. 1848, but only continued there a short time on account of his health. He is now, in 1864, an invalid, residing at Belmont, Mass.

CLELAND KINLOCK MIDDLETON. Born in Charleston, Aug. 16, 1824. After graduating, studied medicine, but his health has prevented him from entering upon any duties.

JAMES MORISON Born in Peterboro', N. H., June 20, 1818. Passed early years of life on a farm. Attended school in native town, and fitted for College at Phillips Academy, Exeter, N. H.

Entered Sophomore. After graduating, studied medicine in Baltimore, and has passed most of his life since in California, in the practice of his profession. Has visited Europe, and has been chosen a Professor of Medicine in one of the California Colleges.

GEORGE FRANCIS PARKMAN. Born in Boston, Aug. 20, 1823. Fitted for College at Public Latin School, having previously visited Europe. After graduating, studied law at Cambridge, and travelled in Europe during 1849-50. Has since resided in Boston.

FRANCIS PARKMAN. Born in Boston, Mass., Sept. 16, 1823. Fitted for College at G. F. Thayer's school, Boston. Visited Europe in senior year. After graduating, studied law at Dane Law School. In 1846, travelled to Rocky Mountains. Since his return, has been incapacitated by illness for any active duties. Has devoted himself to general literature and to historical research. Married May, 1850. Is now a resident of Boston, passing his summers at West Roxbury, engaged in literary and horticultural pursuits.

JOSEPH PEABODY. Born in Salem, Jan. 21, 1824. Fitted for Cambridge at Salem, at the Latin School under Master Oliver Carleton. After graduating, visited Europe, and was there engaged during several years in chemical studies. Returned to this country, and has since been in business in New York City.

HORATIO JUSTUS PERRY. Born in Keene, N. H., Jan. 23, 1824. Fitted for College at Exeter, N. H. After graduating, passed some time at Dane Law School. Afterwards went abroad, and became attached to the American Legation at Madrid. Here he has married and has resided, twice holding the office of Secretary of Legation, and being more or less occupied with the affairs of our Government at the Spanish capital since his residence in the country.

WILLIAM GARDINER PRESCOTT. Born in Boston, Jan. 26, 1826. Fitted for College at ———. After graduating, studied law at Cambridge; travelled in Europe. Married. Has spent his summers on the paternal farm at Pepperell.

LEVERETT SALTONSTALL. Born in Salem, March 16, 1825. Fitted for College at Latin School, Salem. Visited Fayal and England after graduating, and then entered Law School at Cambridge. Received degree LL.B., 1847. Admitted to the bar in Boston, and practised. Visited Europe in 1847-49. Married in 1854. Resides at Chestnut Hill, Newton.

FREDERIC ADOLPHUS SAWYER. Born in Bolton, Mass., Dec. 12, 1822. After graduating, engaged in school teaching, and removed to the South. When last heard from, was at Charleston, S. C.

FRANCIS WILLARD SAYLES. Born in Boston. Fitted for College in Boston. After graduating, went into mercantile business, and continued thus engaged until his death, which occurred at the time of the Norwalk Railroad accident, in 1853. Was married in July, 1846.

PHILIP HOWES SEARS. Born in Brewster, Dec. 30, 1819. Prepared for College at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass. After graduating, studied law at Cambridge and Boston. Has since resided in Boston in the practice of his profession. Married April 23, 1861. Overseer of Harvard College.

EDMUND QUINCY SEWALL. Born in New York, July 1, 1826. After graduating, went to Europe, where he remained two years, mostly in Heidelberg, attending lectures in the jurisprudence department of the University. Returned in 1846, studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1850. Practised for three years, abandoned the profession, and went into the manufacturing of steam engines and machinery, in which he is now engaged. Unmarried.

DANIEL DENISON SLADE. Born in Boston, May 10, 1823. Fitted for Cambridge at Public Latin School, Boston. After graduating, studied medicine in Boston in Tremont Medical School. Passed one year as House Surgeon in Mass. General Hospital. Travelled and studied in Europe from 1849 to 1852. Has since practised profession in Boston. Married May, 1856.

LAFAYETTE SMITH. Born in Warwick, Mass., Aug. 1, 1824. After graduating, studied law, and removed to Cincinnati in 1852, where he has continued to practise his profession. Married.

JOSEPH BROWN SMITH. Fitted for College at the Institution for the Blind, South Boston. After graduating, was appointed Professor of Music in the Asylum for the Blind at Louisville, Kentucky. Married. Died at Louisville, May 6, 1859.

CHARLES HENRY BOYLSTON SNOW. Born at Fitchburg, Mass., Aug. 7, 1822. Fitted for College at Exeter, N. H. After graduating, spent two years at Dane Law School, and one year in an office. Admitted to the bar and practised profession in native town, where he now resides. Married in 1858.

JOSHUA CLAPP STONE. Born in Boston, Aug. 28, 1825. Studied law. Now resides in New Bedford, Mass.

WARREN TILTON. Born in Newburyport, Aug. 4, 1824. Fitted for College at the Latin School in Boston. Studied law in the office of Hubbard & Watts, Boston, and at Cambridge Law School. Was married in Georgetown, D. C., Feb. 25, 1851. Is now practising his profession in Boston. Has been a member of the Mass. Senate and House of Representatives.

GEORGE WALKER. Born in Burlington, Mass., Feb. 9, 1820.

STEPHEN GOODHUE WHEATLAND. Born at Newton, Aug. 11, 1824. Fitted for College at Latin School, Salem, under Master Oliver Carleton. After graduating, studied and practised law in Salem. Travelled in Europe and America. Representative in State Legislature one year. Has been mayor of Salem for the last two years. Unmarried.

EDWARD WHEELWRIGHT. Born in Boston, March 10, 1854.

HENRY BLATCHFORD WHEELWRIGHT. Born in Portsmouth, N. H., May 22, 1824. After graduating, taught school; studied medicine and received his degree. Is now Agent for State Charities.

CHARLES ADAMS WHITCOMB. Born in Hancock, N. H., Jan. 21, 1823. After graduating, in November, 1844, went to the South with his classmate Sears, remaining for the greater part of the time in Louisville, Ky. Returned to his home in the summer following, with health somewhat impaired—spending, however, a term or two at the Law School, Cambridge. In August, 1849, returned to the Law School, remaining till April, 1850. May 4, 1850, emigrated to California with his brother, where he became a member of the bar and practised law. May 3, 1851, he received severe injuries in escaping from the burning building in which his office was located, from the effects of which he died May 20, 1851.

EDWARD AUGUSTUS WILD. Born in Brookline, Nov. 25, 1825. After graduating, studied medicine with his father—also at Boston and Philadelphia. Received his degree in Philadelphia in 1846. Married. Went to Europe, during the Crimean war, and offered his medical services to the Turkish government. On his return, practised his profession in Brookline. In 1861, commissioned as Captain in 1st Regiment Mass. Volunteers; afterwards appointed Major, Lieut. Colonel, Colonel, and Brig. General, and assigned to the command of Wild's African Brigade. Has received various wounds and mutilations. Several of his classmates presented him with a sword while still captain in the Mass. 1st.

---

The following entered the class at various times, but did not graduate, or at least did not receive their degrees at our Commencement :—

CHARLES AREY.

AARON CHARLES BALDWIN. Resides in Boston. Unmarried.

GEORGE LEAVITT BALLARD. Died Nov. 9, 1843.

JOHN BROOKS BEAL.

ISAAC VOSE BEMIS.

RICHARD MAGRUDER BRADFORD. Resides at Newport, R. I. Mercantile. Unmarried.

GEORGE WASHINGTON BROWN.

HENRY BASS BULLARD.

WILLIAM PITT DENTON.

WILLIAM GILES DIX.

GEORGE SAMUEL EMERSON.

WILLIAM HENDERSON GILMAN.

FRANKLIN GLAZIER.

WILLIAM LOWNDES HAMILTON.

JOHN ADAMS HARRIS.

GEORGE HOWES.

WILLIAM MORRIS HUNT. Married 1858. Artist.

DAVID LEAVITT.

SAMUEL BRADLEY NOYES.

RICHARD DENISON ROGERS.

ROBERT POSSAC ROGERS.

WALTER HIRAM RUSSELL.

JAMES PARKER TREADWELL.

WILLIAM SKINNER WARD.

---

Occupation or Profession of each Member. [Originally compiled in 1846.]

LAW. Baker, Batchelder, Brooks, Cary, Chauncey, Clarke, Codman, Davis, Farnsworth, Fuller, Hale, Hartwell, Hoar, Johnson, Lemmon, Lewis, G. F. Parkman, F. Parkman, Perry, Prescott, Saltonstall, Sears, Sewall, Snow, Stone, Tilton, Treadwell, E. Wheelwright, Wheatland, Whitcomb.

MEDICINE. Crowell, Dalton, Faulkner, Francis, Middleton, Morrison, Slade, H. B. Wheelwright, Wild.

MERCANTILE PURSUITS. Blair, Dabney, Dwight, Lord, Sayles, Davis, Prescott, Peabody.

DIVINITY. None.

MISCELLANEOUS. Capen, Teacher — Gould, Astronomy — Greele, Civil Engineer—Hoar, Farmer—J. B. Smith, Prof. of Music.

THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN IN THE ARMY OR NAVY. Dalton, Davis, Dabney, Wild.

---

DEATHS.

Batchelder, Cary, Crowell, Hildreth, Lemmon, Sayles, J. B. Smith, Whitcomb.

